Narbonne Plays Tartars Here Friday

TRADITIONAL GAME EXPECTED TO ATTRACT CAPACITY CROWD

Both Coaches Bewail Chances of Their Teams Snatching a Victory on Eve of Big Inter-City Battle

1926—Narbonne, 7; Torrance, 0
1927—Narbonne, 44; Torrance, 0
1928—Torrance, 19; Narbonne, 8
1929—Narbonne, 66; Torrance, 0
1930—?

That's the record for the past four years of the two local teams who will meet on the Torrance gridiron tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock to settle the 1930 record of their traditional battles.

While the game is between two teams in the Marine league, it is not considered as an official league game, as the elevens are in different classifications—Narbonne being in the upper division and Torrance in the lower.

There are more than 700 seats available to townspeople of both Torrance and Lomita at 25 cents a head. A large delegation of Lomitanis is expected to be on hand to cheer for the Narbonne Gauchos who galloped over the ponderous Jordan team last week, 19-6.

Coaches Are Pessimistic
Both coaches, Earl Fields of Torrance, and Ben Comrada of Narbonne, are rather pessimistic over the outcome of the game—Fields because he is dubious as to whether the Tartars will click as a team should, and Comrada over injuries to his stellar players.

In fact, if you believed both of the "head-men," you would think that they would like to postpone the fracas until next week or later. But be that as it may, everything points to the fact that it's going to be a bang-up football game, with both teams showing everything they've got along with both coaches working overtime to plug the holes.

If the team hits on all six, then look for a real smart game," opines Coach Fields. "The boys are in fine physical condition; they know what the game is about and they should click as a fighting team. I'm not looking into the future and telling what the score will be. I know that, on paper, Narbonne is one or two touchdowns better than we are.

"But paper playing doesn't mean anything," the local mentor continued. "I believe the fellows are going to get down to brass tacks early in the game and make a good, clean fight, and that's all I want."

Down Lomita way, Coach Ben Comrada has the same long face about the matter of the game. "Injuries to my players is going to cause Narbonne a lot of trouble, and I am almost certain that the score will not be anything like the one last year. Joe Campbell, right guard, and Charlie Foster, quarter, are in none too good condition, and I've got as good if not better material sitting on the bench than those that will have to play the game. Don't ask me the score—we've got a chance to win, but it's a slim one."

And so, fans, you'll have to see the game to find out what each coach has up his jersey in the way of fast ones on the local grid field.

Coaches Fields and Comrada gave out their tentative lineups for the game, but both insist that changes might be made before the game is called at 3 o'clock.

Here's the probable starting lineups:
TORRANCE Vs. NARBONNE
Bert Merrill L. E. R. Ralph Adams
Elmer Hilly L. E. R. Norman Robb
Bob Atchison L. G. R. Joe Campbell
Milton Everett R. C. Wm. Shepherd

TARTAR BAND MEETS FIRST DEFEAT HERE

After being held scoreless in the first half, the substitution of a fresh backfield by Banning turned the tide of battle here last Friday that permitted the Wilmington visitors two touchdowns and one conversion in the final quarter. The score: Banning, 13; Torrance, 6.

The largest crowd ever assembled here for a football game saw Coach Earl Fields' gridsters blank the powerful Banning eleven for three quarters and witnessed a Torrance team repulsing the invaders on the Maroon and Gray's one-foot line after Banning had failed to make the 10 yards to a goal in four downs.

A fishing attack by the Wilmington eleven did not let the local team get set for an aerial offensive planned by the Torrance squad—this together with the Banning substitution of a new backfield helped in the first Torrance defeat this season.

Everett, Center, Stars
Statistics on the game show the superiority of the Banning team, which only slightly outweighed the Tartars. Banning made 13 first downs to the Tartar's six; Banning completed three passes (two of them forward and one lateral heaves) out of ten tries with Torrance adding yardage on two good passes of six and attempted, Banning intercepted two of the Tartar air drives.

At two points in the game, Torrance took the ball away from Banning on downs. A total of 25 yards was lost by Banning because of penalties and Torrance was deprived of 15 yards by the same reason. The visitors' touchdowns were made by Turley and Pat Horan in the final quarter, Murray converting one of them for the extra point.

Willie Agapito used his head in tossing passes and Jimmie McLean, Leo Sweeney and Dan Bernard in the backfield contributed a sterling defense against the invaders. Milton Everett at center deserves special mention for his really brilliant work at the hub. Everett, in fact, was the star of the day, nailing the Banning line plungers at almost every opportunity. Vicious Sunday Closing Law

A PERIL TO ALL INDUSTRIES
A MENACE TO ALL EMPLOYEES
The proposed Sunday Closing Act (Proposition 26, November 4 Election Ballot) threatens loss totaling millions of dollars to California industry. Approximately 2500 plants representing an annual production of one thousand million dollars would be affected.

Loss of employment to thousands of workers affecting practically every line of industry will result if this vicious law is enacted.

Misleading and loaded with jokers, "The Barber Shop Law," sponsored by barbers, is a proposed amendment that would make unlawful the performance of labor by any individual or the operation of plants or factories on Sunday, with certain ambiguous exceptions.

The first Section of No. 26 provides:
"It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation to conduct, carry on, or keep open for business on Sunday any store, barber shop, workshop, factory or other place of business, or to perform or employ any labor on Sunday."

This law would prohibit such work as repairs on machinery and equipment, rush work to fulfill contracts on which a definite date is set and other kinds of work which practically every manufacturer finds necessary from time to time.

Where Sunday work is now in practice either the continuous work is virtually a matter of necessity or is performed by the employee because of the increased compensation.

This measure, if passed, will constitute an unwarranted attempt to interfere with the personal liberty of the individual. Let us not bow to a small minority of barbers who would compel this abridgement of our personal rights.

"Looking 'Em Over"

By SIDE LINER

WHAT'S OUR CHANCES AGAINST NARBONNE?
On the whole—very good. Tomorrow (Friday) afternoon, Torrance SHOULD go into the game ready to give everything they officially expect to receive, as we understand it, it is a traditional battle—with Narbonne the time-honored victor.

Coach Ben Comrada has always beaten Torrance except back in the dim past when, according to one grid, the Tartars forgot themselves and beat the Lomitanis. Everything points to the chance that the local team will again suffer a lapse of memory this year and woe betide the Narbonne Gauchos!

Narbonne's win over Jordan last week was their first of this season, having been defeated by Washington, 16-0, and tying Agapito Hillis, 6-6.

By virtue of its defeat of a scrappy Torrance team Friday, 13-0, Banning High will, win, the lower division championship of the Marine League and will play Washington for the league honors. This is a rather headlong statement to make but the cards are now on the table and simply the prediction. Look at the dope: Banning meets Jordan tomorrow (Friday). Jordan was trounced by Narbonne, 19-6, last week—and Jordan beat Bell, 21-7, Washington, which has two victories and no defeats so far, meets Bell on November 14. The Presidents have an easy game with El Segundo (whom Torrance tied and Banning beat) tomorrow.

So there it is: Banning vs. Washington for the title. IN OTHER PASTURES: Because of vandalism on the part of six Fairfax High students, the Garfield team was awarded a 1 to a forfeit game last week. A large F was burned into the school's front lawn and several F's were painted on the campus walls by the sextet. To the credit of the Marine League teams, nothing of that stuff has been attempted here.

Redondo and Inglewood are in a tie for the Bay League championship with two games won and no defeats each. Lincoln and Hollywood are tied in the City League with three victories each. Another tie standing is existing in the Football League with Whittier and Hoover being the participants. And a fourth scramble is on in the San Fernando Valley division with Beverly Hills and North Hollywood the contestants.

PALO ALTO GRID GAME IS ATTENDED

Many Torrance football fans journeyed to Palo Alto over the week-end to witness the Stanford-U. S. C. football game there. The fans went by boat, car and train, most of them returning Sunday night and Monday.

Among those who went are Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Briney, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Miss Katharine Burmaster and C. A. Curtis; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hodge, George Probert, Dewey Quigley and Harry Dolley; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Doan, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Post, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McMillin, and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Howard.

Incidentally, Sam Levy probably enjoyed the game more than any one else in the Stanford bowl as he had a seat directly in front of the U. S. C. assistant coaches who were phoning their observations and prediction of the plays to Coach Howard Jones on the sidelines. The Trojan scouts called the plays before they were executed and gave Levy an interesting "inside" view of the game as it progressed.

State Propositions Analyzed for Voters

per cent interest. The measure is not an appropriation, but involves only use of the state's credit, as the money is repaid with interest by the veteran.

Executive Officers Salaries
Salaries of state executive officers, now fixed in the constitution, would be set by the state legislature, if constitutional amendment number 3 is adopted by the voters. The amendment affects the secretary of state, controller, treasurer, attorney general, surveyor general, and superintendent of public instruction.

S. F. Harbor Bond Issue
The San Francisco Harbor Improvement Act, passed by the 1929 legislature, is on the ballot as proposition 9, for approval as a constitutional amendment, carrying with it a bond issue of $10,000,000. San Francisco harbor is self-sustaining and the amendment provides that port charges be made sufficiently large to pay interest and redeem the bonds.

Permanent Registration
An initiative calling for permanent registration of voters appears as number 11 on the November ballot. Economy and public convenience are the arguments presented in favor of the plan, while those opposed fear it will cost more to keep the list up to date than the present system and present an incomplete list at election times.

To Codify Law System
The purpose of constitutional amendment 15, according to its sponsors, is to "empower the legislature, to provide, and keep up to date, a modern system of laws for the organization and regulation of corporations, better adapted to present-day economic and social conditions than the antiquated laws we now have."

Affects City Charters
Constitutional amendment number 22 changes the law regarding elections on proposed amendments to city charters. At present amendments must be presented to the electors during the six months' period prior to the opening of the legislature and its final adjournment. The amendment strikes out the time provision and allows voting on these amendments at any time.

New State Constitution
Calling of a convention to draw a new state constitution is provided in constitutional amendment number 23. Some opposition has arisen to the amendment, on the ground that California is now singularly free from constitutional controversies and uncertainties and adoption of a new constitution might create the opposite condition, with an orgy of litigation and legislation arising and unsettling the law. Those favoring the idea point out that California's constitution is an anachronism, containing much that should be in the statutes, instead of being fundamental law. The constitution now is rigid, they say, because of its heavy content of statute-law that requires constant changing.

Automobile Tax
An amendment to the constitution, providing for state collection of the personal property tax on automobiles, will appear as number 18 on the ballot. Assessors in the various counties are now suffering a loss of about $1,000,000 annually through inability to assess all automobiles for personal property taxes, the proponents say. The "most objectionable feature" according to those opposed is that it would "require motorists to pay a large lump sum at the holiday season, when other demands are numerous.
